

Acceptable Use of ICT

Lanyon High School has a number of facilities which enable you to access information on computer networks such as the Internet.

To ensure fair and equitable access for all members of the school community who wish to make use of these facilities, all users are required to sign an agreement to abide by certain rules which are described in a code of practice. Most of these rules are ones you would be expected to follow on any ICT network.

This code of practice was developed for students of Lanyon High School and is consistent with the Directorate's Communities Online Policy. All students will need to read and sign this document before utilising the school ICT equipment.

- I will use the school computers for school work only and only as directed by my teacher.
- I will be courteous and use appropriate language when communicating to others.
- I will ask my teacher for help if I find or receive information that I feel uncomfortable with or is inappropriate.
- I will not use the school computer facilities for illegal or dishonest purposes.
- I will not copy software programs on school computers, or copy material, graphics or music owned by others without their permission.
- I will not send, produce, show or search for things that might upset others.
- I will not intentionally create network congestion or disrupt the school computer equipment.
- I will not tell other people my password or leave the computer logged in when leaving the room.
- I will not send photographs or publish full names or personal details of others or myself to unknown people without permission.
- I will not send email to users outside of this school unless the teacher approves it.
- I understand that the school records where I have gone on the Internet
- I understand that not following this Code of Practice may lead to loss of internet, email or networks access for a period of time determined by the Principal.
